Fall 2022

From the Editor

Happy Fall, Y'all! I am sure we all look forward to cooler weather. There are some exciting events coming up, including a district Meet and Eat facilitated by Olga R., and the annual, ever-popular Heart of Texas Conference. Be sure to see What's Happening below.

Just an FYI in case there are those out there who don't know about a free tool available. AA.org has a FREE Meeting Guide App that you can use to locate meetings.

From the Web site: "Meeting Guide syncs with area, district, intergroup/central offices and international general service office websites, relaying meeting information from more than 400 A.A. service entities directly to the app. Over 100,000 weekly meetings are currently listed, and the information is refreshed twice daily."

And Meeting Guide participants now have the capability to set up digital "baskets," for group donations. A recent update to its app supports the display of the PayPal and Square contribution platforms, as well as Venmo.

To read and learn more about the Meeting Guide app, visit here: <https://www.aa.org/meeting-guide-app>.

One last note before I let you go. We need contributions to the newsletter from the fellowship of AA in our area. Short stories, jokes, birthday celebrations, just about anything you can think of sobriety-related would be most welcome. Please consider contributing. Thanks!

One Day at a Time,

Mary D.
